German Folk Song

The musical score is for a piece titled "[41] Christmas Song", identified as a "German Folk Song". It is written in common time (C) and consists of five systems of grand staves. Each system contains four measures. The music is written in a simple, folk-like style with chords and single notes. Handwritten annotations above the staves include chord symbols (F, G7, C, Gm, D, B) and fingering numbers (1-5). The final system is labeled "Coda".

The Time Signature: C, sometimes is used instead of $\frac{4}{4}$, though both signatures mean the same thing. i.e., "four counts to a measure, each count the value of a quarter-note." Some people call this "common time," and use the C to remind them of the word "common."

CODA: a little addition at the close of a composition to bring it to a more satisfactory ending.
